

Annisquam Village

News + Events

Library

Welcome to our updated Annisquam Village Library newsletter!

Summer Hours - July & August - Mondays and Thursdays 3 - 5 pm

New this summer - the Library will be open on Thursdays from 3 - 5 pm For those who wish to have a quiet space to study, read and work, wifi internet is accessible.

We are looking forward to summer weather and to events that include our annual book sale filled with treasures, a spectacular summer party and two very fine speakers.

The Library's Annual 4th of July Book Sale is held just outside the Village Hall and begins at 9:30 am (before the start of parade). For a small sum, a bag with our Library logo filled with books can be yours!

Please mark your calendars for the Library's Summer Party - Thursday, July 19 from 5-7 pm at the home of Jill and Fred Lovejoy at 66 Adams Hill Road.

"Save the Date" postcards are in the mail. Tickets: Friends of the Library: $125 for two persons with names on the invitation - or $30 per person to attend.

July 26 - Christopher Wilkins - Musical Director of the Landmarks Orchestra will give an introduction to Verdi's Requiem which he will conduct at the Hatch Shell in Boston on August first. Seating is limited for this very special presentation on July 26 - for additional information, please contact geraldineherbert@comcast.net

Chris Pullman who known to many of us as a painter, was trained as a graphic designer at the Masters Program at Yale - where he is now in his 52nd year as a member of the faculty.

His talk on Friday, August 17 will describe how he became a teacher, and how his long tenure as Design VP at WGBH prepared him to help his students to become comfortable with designing with time, motion and sound.

Childrens' Story Hour - please stay tuned for day/time

We encourage you to bring young family members and friends from Annisquam and our neighboring communities for special book readings! We often have lemonade and cookies after a reading.

Winter/Spring Events

During this unusually long winter the Library hosted weekly well-attended teas -

Other events included:

Poetry Evening - David McAveney introduced 16! people of all ages who read aloud a favorite poem and told the audience why they had selected the poem.

Tom Brooks - read his poetry that ranged in subject matter from the Leonard School to the Via Giulia.

Annie Storr - presented a biography of Ellen Gates Starr's connection with Hull House and Cape Ann

History Group - film on Vincent Ferrini followed by a lively discussion

